At its inception, the ensemble of performers in the Pick Up Company was not fixed. Since then, though the number of dancers had varied on a project-by-project basis, a "core company" has emerged with whom I rehearse, perform and tour regularly.

I think of my work as an ongoing process in which the materials I work with reappear under new circumstances. I support changes in context, the freedom to re-examine, to alter, to abandon materials or to re-use them for a good laugh at myself and my world. Keeping the options open extends the life span of a work and my interest in it.

—David Gordon

Who's Who

DAVID GORDON performed in the companies of James Waring and Yvonne Rainer in the 1960s. He showed early work at the Living Theatre and in the first Judson Church performances. In the early 1970s he was a founding member of the improvisational ensemble the Grand Union. In 1978 he formalized the process of making work for varying numbers of performers by establishing the Pick Up Company as a legal entity. Between 1978 and 1986, he made work for companies in the United States and Europe, including American Ballet Theatre, Dance Theatre of Harlem, Groupe de Recherche Choreographique de l'Opéra de Paris, Werkcentrum Dans and Extemporary Dance Theatre of London. Mr. Gordon is a Guggenheim Fellow (1981) and has served as a panelist for the Dance Program of the New York State Council on the Arts and as Chairman of the Dance Program panel of the National Endowment for the Arts. In September 1984, he received a New York Performance Award (Bessie) for Sustained Choreographic Achievement. He is profiled in Sally Banes' Terpsichore in Sneakers and by Arlene Croce in the November 29, 1982 issue of The New Yorker. In May 1980, David Gordon's work was included in the Dance in America broadcast Beyond the Mainstream, and he is one of seven artists featured in Michael Blackwood's film Making Dances. Ten minute TV videotapes produced by the Pick Up Company have been shown by Channel 4/ Great Britain. They were selected for the 1984 Olympic Arts Festival and were aired in August 1986 on an episode of the national PBS series Alive from Off Center featuring Gordon's work.

VALDA SETTERFIELD is from England where she performed in pantomimes and with Ballet Rambert. After touring Italy in the revue Buona Notte Bettina, she came to America and joined the companies of James Waring (1958-62) and Merce Cunningham (1965-74). She has appeared on stage with the Grand Union and in works of Katherine Litz, Yvonne Rainer, Robert Wilson, Richard Foreman, JoAnne Akalaitis and on film in works of Ms. Rainer and Brian de Palma. She performed in the work of David Gordon at the Living Theatre and the Judson Church and has been a featured member of the Pick Up Company since its inception. In September 1984 she received a New York Performance Award (Bessie) as an outstanding performance artist.

DEAN MOSS joined the Pick Up Co. during autumn 1983.

CHUCK FINLON has a degree in dance from the University of Wisconsin. Before that he studied biochemistry and linguistics at two other universities. He has most recently worked with the Ram Island Dance Company and Kenneth Rinker, and is presently collaborating on projects with Ann Rodiger. He studies ballet with Janet Panetta along with the Alexander and Feldenkrais techniques.

ROBERT WOOD was born in Dunedin, New Zealand and is a graduate of Wellington Teachers College, where he majored in English, Drama and Music. He began his dance career with the Dierdre Tarrant Dance Theatre and Silk Checks Cabaret and Impulse Dance Theatre. Since arriving in the U.S. he has performed with Minnesota Dance Theatre, Dudek/Mann Dancers, the Bill Cratty Dance Theatre, Peridance Ensemble and the Donald Byrd Dance Foundation. Robert joined the Pick Up Co. in November 1985 and presently studies with Maggie Black and Benjamin Harkavy.
