FROM DAVID GORDON

At its inception, the ensemble of performers in the Pick Up Company was not fixed. Since then, though the number of dancers has varied on a project-by-project basis, a core company has emerged with whom I rehearse, perform and tour regularly.

The dancers of this Company are the main collaborators in my work. They are responsive and creative and I thank them. I would especially like to thank Dean Moss and Chuck Finlon who continue to up the ante on what I ask for with their talent and their imagination...and Valda Setterfield who is my partner and my teacher and my best friend. I would also like to thank Allan Kerr who has bitten off more than most people can chew.

I think of my work as an ongoing process in which the materials I work with reappear under new circumstances. I support changes in context, the freedom to reexamine, to alter, to abandon materials or re-use them for a good laugh at myself and my world. Keeping the options open extends the lifespan of a work and my interest in it.

--David Gordon

CAST AND CREW

David Gordon performed in the companies of James Waring and Yvonne Rainer in the 1960's. He showed work at the Living Theatre and in the first Judson Church performances. In the early 1970's he was a founding member of the improvisational ensemble the Grand Union. In 1978 he formalized the process of making work for varying numbers of performers by establishing the Pick Up Company as a legal entity. Since that time, a core company has been established with whom he rehearses and tours regularly. Between 1978 and 1986, Gordon has made work for companies in the United States and Europe, including American Ballet Theatre, Dance Theatre of Harlem, Groupe de Recherche Choreographique de L'Opera de Paris, and recently for the Rambert Dance Co. Gordon's work was seen at The Brooklyn Academy of Music in 1984, when he constructed the movement for the NEXT WAVE Festival's presentation of the Phillip Glass work "The Photographer".
