

HU-MOR or HU-MOUR - noun plural noun: humor or humors?

quality of being amusing or comic - especially in literature or speech - or - as defense against being taken &/or judged too seriously.

verb: present: humors - past tense: humored - present participle: humoring -

LOG-IC - noun plural noun: logic or logics?

system - or set of principles to perform a specified task - w/underlying elements of proof & inference - to be ignored for a time when useful - but not/never abandoned.

JEW - noun plural noun: Jews

ARE JEW KIDDING ME!

member of the people & cultural community - who trace origins through the ancient Hebrew people of Israel - to Abraham - or - to rosie & sammie - & to aunts paulie, yettie, irene, ruthie & to grandma fannie wunderlich.

FILM - noun

plural noun: films

thin flexible strip of plastic or other material

coated with light-sensitive emulsion for exposure in a camera - used to produce photographs or motion pictures - also called cinema, flick & photoplay - or the pikchas or moovies ya see as a kid inna local loews - every saturday or sunday.

Flick & film

ABOUT THE FILM

VICE VER-SA - adverb

early 17th century: from Latin - literally 'in-turned position' - the other way around - conversely, inversely, contrariwise - "dancers can teach actors a lot and vice versa" -

the opposite of what you just said - you say - can also be true - what if - you ask the dancer - what if - you reverse that phrase? what if - we use the back as front? what if?

Copernicus was the first to suggest - the earth revolves around the sun - and not vice versa.

QUAR-TET - noun
 plural noun: quartets;
 noun: quartette; plural noun: quartettes
 set of 4 people or things.
 early 17th century/French quartette - Italian quartetto - Latin quartus .

quartets are interesting aren't they?
i love lucy is a quartet & will & grace & who's afraid of virginia woolfe?
all in the family - bobbsey twins (2 setsa twins) & verdi's rigoletto quartet -
& the four tops - & don't forget - the marx brothers start as a quartet -
& what about the beatles?

Stan Getz Quartet
 Stan Getz (tenor sax), Tony Aless (piano), Percy Heath (bass), Don Lamond (drums)
 NYC, April 14, 1950

T. S. Eliot
Four Quartets
 Read by Ralph Fiennes

CON-CLU-SION - noun plural noun: conclusions

end of an event or process - summing-up of argument or text - settling or arrangement of treaty or agreement - act of concluding or finishing something - but conclusions are temporary - if ya stop eating - don't mean ya never gonna wanna eat again - or eat more later - or what about dessert - it means no more fa now. temporary end - full fa now...

in-ven-tion - noun plural noun: inventions

action of inventing something - typically a process or device.
creative ability.

INVENTION.

INVENTION

INVENTION

The Invention

THE INVENTION OF LYING

THE INVENTION OF CREATIVITY

The Invention of the word B|o|o|b
Top View Front View Side View

THE INVENTION of MURDER

pan·a·ce·a - noun
solution or remedy for all difficulties or diseases.

DEEP HOUSE PANACEA

PANACEA OF IDIOMS

OBESITY PANACEA

The Panacea Charitable Trust

PANACEA COFFEE CO.

work·man·ship - noun

'wɜ:kmə'n,ʃɪp/ - degree of skill with which a product is made or a job done.

WORK
WORK
WORK
WORK

MANSHIP

NEW
work

WORK
work
WORK
& WORK!!

SHOW YOUR
WORK

WORKMANSHIP

WORKMANSHIP

Workmanship

WORKMAN

SHIP

WORK

MAN

SHIP

WORK

manSHIP

WORK

WORK

workman

SHIP

WORKMAN

SHIP

WORK

MANSHIP

SHIP

WORKMANSHIP

workmanship