About the Artists

Philip Glass composes music for opera, film, theater, dance, chorus, and his own ensemble. A graduate of Juilliard, Mr. Glass has received numerous commissions and awards, including a composer-in-residence grant from the Ford Foundation, a Rockefeller Fellowship, and a Fulbright Scholarship, which enabled him to study with Nadia Boulanger in Paris.

His commissions include the opera Satyagraha (for the City of Rotterdam, 1980), which premiered in Holland and subsequently was performed at the Brooklyn Academy of Music in 1981 as part of the NEXT WAVE series. A new production of Satyagraha was featured in the 1982-83 season of the Stuttgart Opera.

Philip Glass' most celebrated collaboration was with stage director/designer Robert Wilson on the opera Einstein on the Beach, which premiered at the Avignon Festival in 1976 and toured throughout Europe, culminating in two sold-out performances at the Metropolitan Opera House. Akhmatov, Mr. Glass' third full opera, has been commissioned by the Stuttgart Opera for a world premiere in March 1984.

On October 4, 1982, the film Koyaanisqatsi, with a score by Mr. Glass, premiered at Radio City Music Hall as a New York Film Festival selection. His first film score was North Star: Mark Di Suvero, and Mr. Glass is the subject of a biographical film by British film-maker Peter Greenaway (The Draughtsman's Contract) which will premiere in the fall of 1983 on British television.

Philip Glass is a CBS Masterworks recording artist, the first composer to be offered this contract since Aaron Copland. Glassworks was his first Masterworks release. The second recording, The Photographer, was released in March 1983. Earlier recorded works include Music in 12 Parts, Music in Similar Motion, and Music with Changing Parts. Einstein on the Beach and Dance 1 and 3 will be re-released by CBS Masterworks in 1984.

Joanne Akalaitis is a founding member of Mabou Mines and since 1970, has worked both as a director and an actress with the company. Her productions for the company of Cascando, Dressed Like an Egg, Southern Exposure, and Dead End Kids, A History of Nuclear Power, have all won Obie awards. Her production of Request Concert at the Women's Interart Center won a Drama Desk Award in 1981. Ms. Akalaitis received a Guggenheim Fellowship for 1977-78 and a CAPS award for multi-media theater in 1980. She is the recipient of the Rosamund Gilder award for outstanding theater achievement in 1981, and a Rockefeller and NEA grant (1982-83) for a collaboration with Jon Gibson on an opera about Darwin. Currently she is the recipient of a Rockefeller playwriting grant for residency at the Mark Taper Forum in Los Angeles. JoAnne Akalaitis has been working in various capacities in theater most of her life and hopes to continue to do so.

Robert Coe was born in Hollywood, California, and attended Stanford University. After graduate work in literature at the University of Buffalo he moved to New York City in 1977, where he has written on a range of cultural topics—especially theater, dance, and performance—for the Village Voice, the Soho Weekly News, the New York Times, the New York Times Magazine, and numerous other publications. His first book, Dance in America, commissioned by the WNET television series, will be published by E. P. Dutton in the fall of 1984. As a performer, he has danced with choreographers Jane Comfort, Bill T. Jones, and Garry Reigenborn, and sung with composers Des McAnuff and Laurie Anderson; as editor and dramaturg for Laurie Anderson's United States: Parts I-IV, which premiered at BAM in February 1983, he co-authored a number of monologues and texts to music. The Photographer/Far From the Truth is his second work for the theater; an earlier play, War Babies, will be developed in workshop at the Mark Taper Theater Lab in Los Angeles later this year.

David Gordon has worked in the dance field for over 20 years. He danced in the companies of James Waring and Yvonne Rainer in the 1960's and made performance works during that period at the Judson Dance Theater. In the early 1970's he performed regularly with the Grand Union. He now makes works for dance companies in the United States and Europe. He is Artistic Director of the Pick Up Co., a performance ensemble which includes about half a dozen of the same people and additional performers as needed for a given project. The Pick Up Co. performs regularly in New York City and has toured the United States and Europe.

In May 1980, David Gordon's work was included in the Dance in America broadcast Beyond the Mainstream. He is one of seven artists featured in Michael Blackwood's film Making Dances. In the spring of 1982, David Gordon began his own experiments in the video field, by making, in collaboration with videographer Dennis Diamond, a new work entitled T.V. Reel. This work incorporated the use of video, projected on advent screens, within the context of live performance. In the summer of 1982, Mr. Gordon further pursued his interest in video by co-directing and co-editing a half-hour video tape entitled 10 Minute TV, with Edward Steinberg. In the spring of 1983, he worked in collaboration with producer Kathryn Esher and Twin Cities Public Television to create a 30-minute program including dancers from Pick Up Co. and the New Dancer Ensemble (Minneapolis, Minnesota), entitled Limited Partnership. The program is scheduled for airing in autumn 1983.

Santo Loquasto has been acclaimed for his designs for productions on and off Broadway, including Bent, The Cherry Orchard, American Buffalo, That Championship Season, A Comedy of Errors, The King of Hearts, and The Suicide. He has received Tony, Drama Desk, Joseph Maharam, Obie, and Outer Critics Circle awards. As a designer for dance he has worked for American Ballet Theatre, the Joffrey, and New York City Ballet. Mr. Loquasto's film work includes costume designs for Woody Allen's Stardust Memories and A Midsummer Night's Sex Comedy. He is a graduate of King's College and Yale Drama School. He recently designed the New York Shakespeare Festival production of Richard III, starring Kevin Kline, and was the set consultant for Orgasmo Adulto Escapes from the Zoo, starring Estelle Parsons, at the Public Theatre.

Jennifer Tipton (Lighting Designer) is well known to dance and theater audiences alike. She has lit works in the repertoires of most major dance companies, including dances choreographed by Jerome Robbins, Mikhail Baryshnikov, Paul Taylor, and Twyla Tharp, among many others. Her work in the theater has won her a Joseph Jefferson Award in Chicago, a Drama Desk Award, an Obie, and a Tony. In 1982 she was honored by Brandeis University, receiving their Creative Arts Award Medal in Dance. She teaches lighting in the School of Drama at Yale.

Wendall K. Harrington has created projections for several Broadway shows, most notably They're Playing Our Song and My One and Only. In addition to her theatrical work, she and her company, Luminous! Productions, Inc., produce multi-media projects for industrial clients. Recently, Ms. Harrington and her company created a four-minute, nine-projector show entitled Multi-Image Murders, which won the 1983 Association for Multi-Image Crystal Apple and International Gold Award.
