At its inception, the ensemble of performers in the Pick Up Company was not fixed. Since then, though the number of dancers has varied on a project-by-project basis, a "core company" has emerged with whom I rehearse, perform and tour regularly.

The dancers of this Company are the main collaborators in my work. They are responsive and creative and I thank them. I would especially like to thank Dean Moss and Chuck Finlon who continue to up the ante on what I ask for with their talent and their imagination ... and Valda Setterfield who is my partner and my teacher and my best friend.

I would also like to thank Alyce Dissette who has a dancer's courage.

I think of my work as an ongoing process in which the materials I work with reappear under new circumstances. I support changes in context, the freedom to re-examine, to alter, to abandon materials or to re-use them for a good laugh at myself and my world. Keeping the options open extends the life span of a work and my interest in it.

David Gordon performed in the companies of James Waring and Yvonne Rainer in the 1960s. He showed early work at the Living Theatre and in the first Judson Church performances. In the early 1970s he was a founding member of the improvisational ensemble the Grand Union. In 1978 he formalized the process of making work for varying numbers of performers by establishing the Pick Up Company as a legal entity. Since that time a core company has been established with whom he rehearses and tours regularly. Between 1978 and 1986, Gordon has made work for companies in the United States and Europe, including American Ballet Theatre, Dance Theatre of Harlem, Groupe de Recherche Choreographique de l'Opera de Paris, and recently for the Rambert Dance Co. Gordon's work was first seen at The Brooklyn Academy of Music in 1984 when he constructed the movement for the NEXT WAVE Festival's presentation of the Philip Glass work "The Photographer". The Pick Up Company has since been presented in the NEXT WAVE Festival in both 1986 and 1988. Mr. Gordon is a Guggenheim Fellow (1981 and 1987), has served as a panelist for the Dance Program for the New York State Council on the Arts and as Panelist and Chairman of the Dance Program Panel of the National Endowment for the Arts. In May 1980, David Gordon's work was included in the Dance in America broadcast Beyond the Mainstream, and he is one of seven artists featured in Michael Blackwood's film Making Dances. His ten minute TV videotapes produced by the Pick Up Company have been shown by Channel 4/Great Britain. They were selected for the 1984 Olympic Arts Festival and were aired in August 1986 on an episode of the national PBS series Alive from Off Center devoted to Gordon's work. In October of 1987 "David Gordon's Made in U.S.A." aired nationally on WNET/Great Performances and later received three Emmy nominations. The program featured Mikhail Baryshnikov and Valda Setterfield in three of Gordon's works for the Pick Up Co. and American Ballet Theatre. This past summer the Company completed a video work titled "My Folks" which will be aired on BBC-TV.

Valda Setterfield is from England where she performed in pantomimes and with Ballet Rambert.
