CHOREOGRAPHERS

TRISHA BROWN, in 1960 at the age of 23, became one of the leaders of New York's Judson Dance Theater, the revolutionary movement that changed modern dance forever. After founding the Trisha Brown Dance Company in 1970, she began a series of large-scale theatrical productions that transformed traditional stage space, collaborating with such artists as Robert Rauschenberg, Donald Judd, Laurie Anderson, Nancy Graves, Fujiko Nakaya, and John Cage. Ms. Brown typically works in cycles of three or four dances. Her music cycle began with M.O. (1995), a 55-minute dance set to Bach's Musical Offering, and culminated in her highly acclaimed production of Monteverdi's opera, L'Orfeo, which had its world premiere at the Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie in Brussels in 1998. Ms. Brown recently completed a full-evening jazz trilogy, with original music by composer Dave Douglas, visual presentation by renowned artist Terry Winters, and lighting design by Jennifer Tipton. The entire trilogy was presented at the American Dance Festival in June, 2000. The first woman to receive the coveted MacArthur Foundation Fellowship in choreography, Trisha Brown has received many other honors and awards, including five fellowships from the National Endowment for the Arts and two John Simon Guggenheim Fellowships. In 1987, she received both a Dance Magazine Award for "twenty-five years of sustained innovations" and the Laurence Olivier Award for "most outstanding achievement in dance." In 1994, Brown was the recipient of the Samuel H. Scripps American Dance Festival Award; in 1996 she was awarded the Prix de la Danse de la Société des Auteurs et Compositeurs Dramatiques; in 1999 she received the New York State Governor's Arts Award; and in 2000 she was Chevalier dans l'ordre des Arts et des Lettres. Brown served on the National Council on the Arts from May 1994 to November 1997, and was inducted as an Honorary Member of the American Academy of Arts and Letters in 1997.

LUCINDA CHILDS began her career as choreographer and performer in 1963 as an original member of the Judson Dance Theater in New York. After forming her own dance company in 1973, Ms. Childs collaborated with Robert Wilson and Philip Glass on the opera Einstein On the Beach, participating as leading performer and choreographer (1976, 1984, 1992). Since 1979, Ms. Childs has collaborated with a number of composers and designers on a series of large-scale, full-length productions, among them Dance (1979), with Philip Glass and Sol LeWitt, and Available Light (1983), with John Adams and Frank Gehry. She also received a number of commissions from major ballet companies since 1981. These include the Paris Opéra Ballet, Bayerisches Staatsballett, Martha Graham Dance Company, and Les Ballets de Monte Carlo. Additionally, in the field of opera, Ms. Childs has worked with director Luc Bondy on his productions of Salome (1992-95), Reigen (1993-94), Don Carlos (1996), and Macbeth (1999). She directed her first opera Zaïde for La Monnaie, Brussels in October 1995. In 1979, Ms. Childs received a Guggenheim Fellowship and in 1996 was appointed to the rank of Officier dans l'Ordre des Arts et des Lettres, one of the most distinguished honors given by the French government for outstanding contributions to the arts.

SIMONE FORTI began dancing in 1955 with Anna Halprin, who was doing pioneering work in improvisation and developing a workshop process. Forti went on to study with Robert Dunn who introduced her to the scores of John Cage and to a conceptual approach to composition. Out of these two influences, which still inform her work, she created her first concert titled Five Dance Constructions and Some Other Things. Dance critic Jennifer Dunning wrote in a 1997 New York Times review, "Simone Forti presented her first dance program in 1960 and since then has had a steadily increasing influence on post-modernist choreographers interested in exploring 'natural,' or non-formalist, movement and dance." From her early minimalist dance constructions, through her animal studies, news animations and land portraits, Forti has always worked with an eye towards creating idioms for exploring natural forms and behaviors. Since the early 1980's, she has been developing Logomotion, an improvisational dance/narrative form wherein movement and words spontaneously weave together creating cohesive images of subjects ranging from world news to the roots of a cabbage plant. Simone Forti has performed and taught throughout the world and has received various grants including six NEA fellowships. In 1995 she received the New York Dance & Performance Award ("Bessie"), for sustained achievement. She is the subject of a chapter in Sally Banes's book Terpsichore in Sneakers. Her own book, Handbook in Motion, which was published in 1974 by the Press of the Nova Scotia College of Art and Design, is currently being republished in French translation by the Belgian dance magazine Nouvelle de Danse.

DAVID GORDON performed in the companies of James Waring and Yvonne Rainer, choreographed for the original Judson Church performances, and was a founder of the 1970's group The Grand Union. He started the Pick Up Performance Company in 1971. He has been a Guggenheim Fellow (1981 and 1987) and served as panelist and chairman at the NEA dance program. His video work appeared on KTCB Alive TV, PBS Great Performances, the BBC and Channel 4 / Great Britain. The Mysteries and What's So Funny?, written and directed in 1992 won a New York Dance and Performance Award ("Bessie") and an Obie and was published in "Grove New American Theater" edited by Michael Feingold. The Family Business, written with Ain Gordon (Associate Director of the Pick Up Company) won an Obie in 1994. Gordon directed and choreographed Shlemiel The First for the American Repertory Theater and The American Music Theater Festival. It was performed at American Conservatory Theatre (ACT) in San Francisco 1996 and won the 1997 Dramalogue Awards for Direction and Choreography at the Geffen Playhouse in Los Angeles. Gordon was awarded Pew Charitable Trust grants in both theater and dance; a National Theatre Artist Residency grant to work with the Guthrie Theater where he directed and choreographed The Firebugs in 1995, and a 1996 National Dance Residency Project grant. In 1999 he directed and choreographed The First Picture Show (text by the Gordons) commissioned by the Mark Taper Forum in collaboration with ACT. Currently, Gordon is working on a music theater adaptation of The Wind in the Willows for American Conservatory Theater.

DEBORAH HAY, born in Brooklyn in 1941, grew up dancing and was an early participant in Judson Dance Theater. In 1964 she danced with the Merce Cunningham Dance Company. Hay left New York in 1970, to live in a community in northern Vermont. Her daughter Savannah was born one year later. It was here that she began to follow a rigorous daily performance practice which continues to inform her as a student, teacher, and dancer. In 1976 she moved to Austin, Texas. From 1980 through 1996 she conducted fifteen annual large group workshops, each lasted four months and culminated in public performances. The group dances became the fabric for her solo performance repertory. Her book Lamb at the Altar: The Story of a Dance, Duke University Press, 1994, documents that unique creative process. Hay received a 1983 Guggenheim Fellowship in Choreography, and numerous National Endowment for the Arts Choreography Fellowships. She was also the recipient of a 1996 Rockefeller Foundation Bellagio Fellowship in collaboration with the Austin sculptor, Tre Arenz. She tours extensively as a solo performer and teacher. Her third book, My Body, The Buddhist, is available Fall 2000, published by Wesleyan University Press.

STEVE PAXTON, born in Phoenix, Arizona, U.S.A., was schooled in modern dance and ballet. He has performed with the Merce Cunningham Dance Co., José Limón Co., Pauline Koner, Pearl Lang, Tamiris-Nagrin, Yvonne Rainer, Trisha Brown and others, and was a co-founder of the Judson Dance Theater, NYC 1962, and Grand Union, 1971. He instigated Contact Improvisation in 1972, which continues today as an international network of dancers who convene to practice this form and who publish news and research in "Contact Quarterly" (Northampton, MA), for which he is a contributing editor. Mr. Paxton lives in Vermont. He received a New York Dance and Performance Award ("Bessie") for on-going choreography in 1987, and grants from National Endowment for the Arts, the Rockefeller Foundation, Contemporary Performance Arts Foundation, and Change, Inc. In 1994, he received the Vermont Governor's Award for Excellence in the Arts. In 1995 he received a grant from the Contemporary Performance Arts Foundation and was awarded a Guggenheim Fellowship.

YVONNE RAINER was born in San Francisco in 1934. She trained as a modern dancer in New York from 1957 and began to choreograph her own work in 1960. She was one of the founders of the Judson Dance Theater in 1962, the genesis of a movement that proved to be a vital force in modern dance in the following decades. Between 1962 and 1975 she presented her choreography throughout the United States and Europe, notably on Broadway in 1969, in Scandinavia, London, Germany, and Italy between 1964 and 1972, and at the Festival d'Automne in Paris in 1972. In 1968 she began to integrate short films into her live performances and by 1975 she had made a complete transition to filmmaking. Some of her better known dances and theater pieces are Terrain (1963), The Mind is a Muscle (1966-68), Continuous Project-Altered Daily (1969-70), WAR (1970), and This is the story of a woman who... (1973). Since 1972 Rainer has completed seven feature-length films, beginning with Lives of Performers and more recently Privilege (1990, winner of the Filmmakers' Trophy at the 1991 Sundance Film Festival, Park City, Utah, and the Geyer Werke Prize at the 1991 International Documentary Film Festival in Munich), and MURDER and murder (1996), winner of the Teddy Award at the 1997 Berlin Film Festival and Special Jury Award at the 1999 Miami Lesbian and Gay Film Festival). All of her films have been shown throughout the U.S. and at major international film festivals. She is the recipient of numerous awards and fellowships, notably two Guggenheim Fellowships, a MacArthur Fellowship, a Wexner Prize, seven NEA awards, three Rockefeller Fellowships, and four Honorary Doctorates. Her latest book, A Woman Who...: Essays, Interviews, Scripts, was published by Johns Hopkins University Press in 1999.

Design for Sharing the Performing Arts

SINCE 1969, Design for Sharing has played an instrumental role in reaching out to our youth and community about the value of the arts. Design for Sharing provides arts access to members of our community who would otherwise not experience the joys of the performing arts. In addition to Demonstration Performances, Design for Sharing presents My Special World – an audience participation workshop for youngsters, ages 5–7, and sponsors a ticket distribution program for community organizations.

Thank you to over 800 Design for Sharing members for supporting the arts in our community including the following major donors:
